The Beginner Learn To Drive Clinic
w/ Rhonda Gould

Celebrated amateur, Rhonda Gould has been involved with horses all her life. She was first a student of her uncle's quarter horses and showed western pleasure. She bought her first horse when she was 18. Early on, she met a Belgium gelding who drove and fell in love with driving and has been doing it ever since. Rhonda has done many HDT's (Horse Driving Trials) and CDE's (Combined Driving Events) and ECHO (Equine Cones Hazards and Obstacle Events) Rhonda lives in Bedford, PA and is a very active member of the American Driving Society. Rhonda never stops learning about horses and driving and wants to share her love of this discipline with others.
