KDCTA Schooling Horse Trial- Levels Defined

The September 26th/27th, 2026 schooling horse trials hosted by KDCTA and CTP Equestrian is aimed to provide a fun, relaxed format three-phase event at an introductory level. The mission is to provide the opportunity to give eventing a try, even for riders and horses brand new to the sport. As such, the jumping at all levels will remain very introductory to each level. Most jumps will be below maximum height, set up in a positive and simplistic way. Our hope is to attract riders out there who have wanted to give eventing a try, and are looking to do so in a low-key, inviting way. Dressage will be held on Saturday September 26th at the Grange Fair Grounds. Showjumping and cross-country will be held on Sunday September 27th at CTP Equestrian.

Introductory Level- Fences not to exceed 2'.

Dressage: Riders will ride USDF Intro Test A and will adhere to USDF Guidelines for Dressage.

Stadium Jumping: The course will be inviting and straightforward, not exceed 8 fences and be composed of cross rails and verticals. The course will be lines of no less than 82' per USEA recommendations, or single fences, no combinations.

Cross-Country: Fences will be natural- type obstacles such as logs and coops, with clear ground lines where warranted. The course will not exceed 10 fences. No water, ditches or banks will be required. The layout and terrain will be inviting for riders and horses new to the sport, with gentle hills and no turns smaller than 20m radius.

Starter Level- Fences not to exceed 2'3".

Dressage: Riders will ride USEA Starter Test A and adhere to USEA Guidelines for Dressage.

Stadium Jumping: The course will be inviting and straightforward in design, not to exceed 8 fences and will be composed of verticals and oxers. Lines will be no less than 82' per USEA recommendations, or single fences, no combinations.

Cross-Country: Fences will be natural-type obstacles such as logs and coops, with clear ground lines where warranted. The course will not exceed 12 fences. Water and ditch will have options and no fences related to them. There will not be a bank jump. The layout and terrain will be uncomplicated with gentle hills and no turns smaller than 20m radius.

Beginner Novice- Fences not to exceed 2'7".

Dressage: Riders will ride USEA Beginner Novice Test A and adhere to USEA Guidelines for Dressage.

Stadium Jumping: The course will be inviting and straightforward in design, not to exceed 12 elements and will be composed of verticals and oxers. Lines will be no less than 82' per USEA recommendations. There will be single fences and may be a two stride combination with an oxer as the A element, 34' minimum distance.

Cross-Country: Fences will be solid in appearance, with ground lines where appropriate. There will not be any combinations or turns smaller than 20m radius. There may be a ditch and water, there will not be a bank jump.
