October 15-16, 2022

Harmony Horsemanship Center, 473 Golf Course Road, Altoona, PA 16601

KDCTA is thrilled to host a clinic with Shawna Karrasch, a pioneer in the use of Positive Reinforcement Training with horses. Her powerful and humane behavioral training techniques are an eye-opening experience for equine professionals, competitors, and amateurs alike. Learn more about her and her clinics at <https://shawnakarrasch.com> or check out her FB group: Equine Clicker 101.

Saturday, Oct 15:

- 9:00 – 12:30 Introduction to R+ Lecture
- 12:30 – 1:30 Lunch and discussion with Q&A
- 1:30 – 3:00 Sessions with participant horses
- 3:00 – 4:00 Reflection and Q&A

Sunday, Oct 16:

- 9:00 – 10:00 Reflection on Day 1
- 10:00 – 12:00 Sessions with participant horses
- 12:00 – 1:00 Lunch and discussion with Q&A
- 1:30 – 3:00 Sessions with participant horses
- 3:00 – 4:00 Final discussion and Q&A

Participants with horses can expect to have 3 individual working sessions with Shawna, which other participants and auditors will observe. A limited number of stalls are available for those who are bringing horses from a distance. There may be options for those who cannot bring their own horse to work with a horse provided by another participant or KDCTA member. Contact the organizer to discuss.

Costs:

- Full Participant with horse: $450 for KDCTA member; $500 for non-member
- Auditor: $150 for KDCTA member, $175 for non-member, $90 for single day
- Lunch: $15 for 2 days – optional. You may choose to bring your own lunch
- Stalls: $50 per day on site
$30 per day at nearby facility (20 min drive)

Facility: Harmony Horsemanship Center has ample trailer parking, indoor and outdoor arenas, wash rack, bathroom, and meeting areas. Some paddocks and round pens may be available for holding horses who are trailering in for the day. Horses should be not left tied to trailers during the time they are not working.

Hotels: There are several hotels within a 10-minute drive of the facility. KDCTA members may be able to provide accommodations to those who are traveling from outside the area.

For more information and answers to questions, contact Karen Schuckman at kdctaorg@gmail.com. Those who register will receive an information packet and additional instructions 2 weeks prior to the event.
