

KDCTA COVID-19 Protocols

Pre-Show

- All entries and payment must be submitted online or mailed if appropriate.
- Payments can be processed through the online entry form or via mailed check.
- Coggins tests and signed waivers should be emailed to KDCTAShows@gmail.com
- All entries MUST contain Trainer's name.
- Anyone planning to enter the showgrounds must sign a Waiver/Release Form. (Competitors, trainers, coaches, parents/guardians, volunteers, show officials)
- All persons planning to enter the showgrounds are responsible for self-monitoring their health for 14-days leading up to the show date. If they come into contact with any COVID+ persons or suspected COVID+ persons or if they exhibit any symptoms, they may not appear at the showgrounds.
- The schedule will be assigned based on the trainer group to limit contact between parties.

Show Day

- All competitors, volunteers, officials, etc. must take their temperature, and should only come to the show if it is below 99.5F.
- All parties must sign the KDCTA liability waiver/release form before they will be allowed to enter the show grounds. Please bring your own pen or an already signed waiver to limit contact points. Better yet, send in with entry. All forms and documents are on the KDCTA website.
- All parties are responsible for supplying their own chairs, masks and sanitizing supplies.
- Trailers should be parked in the marked spots only. If you have come as a group, you may move between trailers. If you have not come as a group, do not approach other trailers or cars.
- Upon leaving your trailer/car, unless mounted, all parties should wear a face-covering until returning to their trailer/car.
- Show Office – Only one to two people at a time are allowed in the registration office.
- Riders are responsible for arriving at the arena a few minutes prior to their ride times and follow the directions of the Gate Steward.
- During Warm-up, please make sure you are spacing yourselves out appropriately. This includes trainers as well as support people.
- Food will not be available on the show grounds unless announced otherwise.
- Scored Dressage tests and ribbons will be available for pickup at a designated place.
- Anyone not adhering to protocol will receive a verbal warning from the secretary and if concerns continue will be asked to leave the showgrounds.
